

Expecting a letter from Grandma?

Expecting your medicine
from the Pharmacy?

Don't expect it in Saturday's mail.

That is, if the U.S. Postal Service has its way and discontinues delivery of the mail on Saturdays.

Your newspaper might also not arrive on Saturday.
And you can surely expect even slower delivery
Monday through Friday as the postal service attempts to get "up to speed" after the weekend lay-off.

Tell your representatives in Congress that you think Saturday mail delivery should continue.
It's how America works.
