EDUCATION REPORTER

Full-time. We've been judged among the best in the state, and we're looking for the best. Northwest Arkansas Newspapers seeks an education reporter to cover public and private schools in Springdale. Boards and committees matter, but we're more interested in stories that bring the policies to the classroom level. The Springdale School District is the second largest and one of the fastest growing in the state. The district is majority minority, with a substantial percentage of Hispanic and Marshallese students. Applicants should have a working knowledge of Associated Press style. A bachelor's degree is required and a journalism major is preferred. Experience at a daily newspaper is preferred; however, entry-level applicants with strong clips will be considered. The position works from our Springdale office, home to Tyson Foods and the Northwest Arkansas Naturals minor league baseball team. The schedule is primarily Monday through Friday; will have to work some evenings and occasional weekends. We offer a competitive salary and a full benefits package including medical with prescription coverage and 401K. Send resume and examples of work to: Springdale Reporter Position, Human Resources, Northwest Arkansas Newspapers, 2560 N. Lowell Road, PO Box 7, Springdale AR 72765 or e-mail jobs@nwaonline.com. PUBLISHER

Publisher candidate resumes being accepted for twice-weekly newspaper in Columbia, Miss., grossing $950K. Ideal candidate knows the business from both sides of the fence, is able to drive revenue and profit, along with producing quality products – this is not a “desk job.” Skills in business, advertising, editorial, leadership, research, problem solving, strategic planning, negotiation, customer service, management and teamwork are all wonderful traits. If you have the drive, but may be lacking a tool or two in your skill set, we do train. Publisher is also expected to be an active and integral member of the community. Compensation range $60K - $70K, 401(k), & other benefits. Send letter of interest, resume, and references to strack@emmerichnewspapers.com. (5)

SEEKING POSITION

Managing editor with eight years journalism experience and multiple first-place awards from APA and APME is seeking new position as writer or editor. I have vast writing experience, having written over 5,000 stories ranging from local government and investigative journalism to feature writing, even sports; five years experience with a daily. Please contact the APA at 501-374-1500 for more information. (3)

NEWS/SPORTS REPORTER

Versatility is an highly valuable skill in the new landscape of community journalism, and The Daily Citizen has an excellent opportunity for a well-rounded journalist who can do it all. The schedule is Monday through Friday — three days of sports, two days of news — and requires reporting, photography and design. Knowledge of Photoshop and inDesign is required, as is a positive attitude, having pride in one's craft, as well as a passion for community journalism and an obsession with putting out a great news and sports product. The successful candidate must be a self-starter, who takes direction well. This is the perfect opportunity for a Jack — or Jill — of all trades, who wants to become a master of those trades as well. The Daily Citizen is an award-winning 5,600-circulation daily newspaper situated in a friendly, growing city of over 22,000 residents who take their news and sports seriously. The Citizen has made several improvements over the past year, and has received a great deal of state-wide accolades, and even some national notice. Searcy is situated in the foothill of the Ozarks, one hour north of Little Rock and two hours west of Memphis. We offer competitive benefits, as well as a great deal of room for growth and advancement. The position pays $22,000. If you have what it takes, send your resume to Editor Jacob Brower at jbrower@thedailycitizen.com, or jwbrower@yahoo.com. (2)

Stay Informed

Arkansas law wisely requires public notices to be printed in your newspaper to let you know about things that affect you in your home, neighborhood, city and state.

Your right to know about the activities of government and private entities is safeguarded in the public notice section of your newspaper. And, now the newspapers of Arkansas have gone one step further, banding together to create a searchable database of public notices at:
