REPORTER - BENTONVILLE

Full-time. We're looking for a reporter who understands that government coverage is about the issues and not the meetings; the taxpayers and not the politicians. We're seeking a professional who is allergic to jargon, embraces alternative story forms and produces multimedia content. Northwest Arkansas Newspapers seeks a writer to cover municipal government in Bentonville, home to the world's largest retailer, a world-class museum and a region named by several institutions and publications as one of the best places to live and work in the country. The successful candidate must have a degree in journalism or a related field and knowledge of AP style. The best candidate will demonstrate an understanding of municipal government, a clear, inviting writing style and organization, and a desire to write enterprise stories. Experience at a daily newspaper is preferred; however, entry-level applicants with strong clips will be considered. Work schedule will include nights and occasional weekend duty. Applicants must have good driving record and valid driver's license. We offer a competitive salary and a full benefits package including medical with prescription coverage and 401K. Send resume and examples of work to: Bentonville Reporter, Human Resources, Northwest Arkansas Newspapers, PO Box 7, Springdale AR 72765 or e-mail jobs@nwaonline.com (put Bentonville Reporter in subject line). EDITOR

The Paragould Daily Press has an opening for an Editor. The Editor is the primary executive for all News Department functions. Candidate will be responsible for all day-to-day operations for the department. The Editor directs the assignment process for stories, photos and layouts; works closely with writers; photographers and other editors carrying out those assignments. The position directs the production process for news and feature pages; implements and maintains editorial policies; supervises all news department employees. Minimum requirements should include: College education, preferable in journalism or strongly related field; at least three years of newspaper experience. Strong news judgment; strong editing, headline writing and page design skills. Strong commitment to community journalism. (1)

STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER

Northwest Arkansas Newspapers has an opening for a full-time photojournalist who is self-motivated, has a strong work ethic and is willing to take feedback and develop in a dynamic environment. We need a journalist who can document the most important news of the day and illustrate the stories of our community. Applicants must have experience working with 35mm digital cameras, knowledge of digital photography and be able to tech digital images. Applicants must be able to write photo captions using Associated Press style. They also must have experience with computers and be able to learn new programs. Experience with Apple computers and programs for photography and multimedia production are a plus. This position will photograph portraits, sports, general news, spot news and features for publication in daily newspapers. The photographer will report to the photo editor but also work closely with other editors and reporters, so communication is an important skill. This position requires at least two years professional experience in photography, with work at a daily newspaper preferred. Post-secondary education in journalism or a field related to photography is also preferred. Hours and days will vary. The position is based in our Fayetteville office, but some travel will be required. Northwest Arkansas is home to Wal-Mart, Tyson Foods and the state's flagship university. We're a nationally recognized economic engine noted for our educational excellence, cultural richness and abundant recreational opportunities in the beautiful Ozark Mountains. We offer a competitive salary and full benefits package including medical plan with prescription card, dental, vision, short-term disability and 401K. Please send detailed resume, portfolio and salary requirements to: Photographer Position, Northwest Arkansas Newspapers, PO Box 7, Springdale AR 72765 or e-mail jobs@nwaonline.com (put Photographer in subject line).
